President's Letter

We welcome Patsy White to the Board as Vice-President to replace Sue Dunham, who has moved to Texas. Patsy is in charge of programs and has exciting plans brewing. Stay tuned.

Enclosed with this quarterly is a form for you to fill out called SURNAME INDEX INFO. We want this information from EVERY member. Your member number is on the membership list found at the end of this issue (mine is H2, for instance, in the last column to the right). Please fill in this surname form and mail to us as soon as possible. They do not have to be typed. When we publish this Surname Index, you will find that many of you are researching the same surnames and do not know it!!! We want to put you in touch, and remember that the quarterlies go to many other societies and libraries and are in both local libraries. You never know what relative you might pick up.

Please note the list of exchange quarterlies we are currently receiving. These are placed in Paul Sullins Library in Crossett for research.

Good times to go to the libraries are Tuesdays in Crossett and Fridays in Hamburg. Our members are giving volunteer time on those days to assist anyone who needs help in family research. If you can give a half day once in a while, call Rebecca Brown in Crossett or Sharon Staton in Hamburg, who are coordinating these services.

The Board is concerned about the lack of attendance at our monthly meetings. We seem to have had better attendance on Saturdays. Our November meeting is very special; it will be on Saturday, Nov. 22, at 2:00 p.m. at A P & L Reddy Room and will feature Mr. Russell Baker from the Arkansas History Commission. Mr. Baker is an excellent speaker and has a wealth of information on how to research, particularly at the History Commission, for all areas of the country. Bring a guest, potential member, and yourself for this special event.

We have many out-of-the-county members, and correspondence has been brisk with them and others needing help. We are proud to have put some in touch with each other who are researching the same families. These members have also been very prompt about sending family group sheets and charts, which we will publish as space permits. Thanks.

This is the last issue before the holidays, so have a happy time and make your New Years resolutions to get cracking in 1987 on your genealogical pursuits. My resolution includes getting all these family files organized!

WIGGINS CABIN

Crossett, Arkansas

"A Gift from the Past to the Future"

By Janice Clark

Abraham Lincoln was a young man in his early 20's, scratching out a bare subsistence in New Salem, Ill., when in the 1830's the Wiggins Cabin was being built from virgin cypress trees beside the Bayou Bartholomew in what was to become Ashley County, Arkansas. Streams were our nation's first highways, and the Bayou would have been the cabin builder's lifeline to the outside world.

The name of the man who built this solid two-pens-and-a-trot home for his family, which is now located at the east end of Crossett's City Park is not known, but he was a man skilled in the use of the whipsaw, the broad ax and the adze. This is abundantly clear in the square-hewed cypress logs, all of which are originals, and the remaining bevelled horizontal lathes used to fill spaces between the box-notched logs. Many of the roof poles are original, as are the clapboards used in the angled walls at the gable ends of the north pen. He was a sturdy man, but if he was over five feet four inches tall he would have been forced to duck to pass through several of his six doorways.

The cabin was built in what has been referred to as "The Great Wilderness," a tangle of towering cypress trees, cane brakes and twisting rattan vines beside the Bayou Bartholomew near Portland, Arkansas. Archeologists say that, judging by material and tools used in the cabin, "it could have been built any time after 1800, most probably in the mid 1830's, shortly before Arkansas became the 25th state in the Union."

The first owner of the property including the cabin to be reflected in the county records was Robert W. NOBLE in 1856. He sold it to Samuel B. WIGGINS in 1859. A Wiggins daughter married William F. McCOMBS and the McCombs family held title to the property until it was bought in the 1970's by the J. W. PUGH interests of Portland. In 1978 the Pugh interests gave the cabin to the Crossett Cultural and Historical Society, a non-profit organization operating under the auspices of the Crossett Chamber of Commerce. On August 24, 1978, the cabin was moved intact -- walls, remaining roof poles and rotting floor boards, to its present site in Crossett.

Restoration has gone on with an army of volunteers (hand-rived roof boards, handmade bricks for two chimneys, and carpentry work) since that day it was settled on cypress log supports in a wooded end of the Crossett City Park. Furnishings, outbuildings and a rail fence have been added in late 1983 -- again with gifts of time, special talents and labor by local individuals and organizations all with deep commitment toward preserving this reflection of pioneer life in Ashley County -- this "Gift from the Past to the Future" of our area.

JAMES H. JOHNSON & 'CASHOUS'

The persons listed below of early Ashley County residents were abstracted from a copy of a small ledger sent by Virginia Shipp of Memphis, TN, a descendant of James H. JOHNSON.

It appears Mr. Johnson had a stud horse named "Cashous." Mr. Johnson kept a record in this little ledger of Cashous' "services" to mares, whose owners are listed. Much of it is very faint and hard to read.

Also, the book includes some family information, which may be obtained by writing to Mrs. Shipp, whose address is on the membership list in this issue.

GARDNER-GARDINER-GARNER

Malcolm Gardner, 7757 New Providence Dr 63, Falls Church VA 22042 has sent the following article which may be helpful to researchers of the GARDNER/GARDINER family.

GARDNER is a common surname in pre-Revolutionary America, from England and Lowland Scotland, with variant spellings not infrequently as GARNER, GARDINER, GUARDNER, etc. - depending on the hearing or whim of the record keeper. The name is probably occupational in origin, but a more lyrical explanation has been from Old English gar-dyn-er, trumpeter or war-noise-maker. Quite possibly in a few instances, the name may have been anglicized from some non-English source as Dutch or German Bumgartner or French Jardinere. (And you'll never know unless you succeed in tracing them back beyond port of entry.) There is not one chance in four that I could help any one, even with a line back to 1800 well-documented as to names, dates, and places. As my immediate GARDNERS were in Georgia by 1776, I have little information after 1800 on the name in Virginia, Tennessee, and the Carolinas. My searching has been an unsuccessful effort to establish the antecedents of my GARDNERS of Bertie Co., NC.

I descend from a Martin GARDNER (d c1759), old enough in 1715 to be married and buying and selling land in Chowan Precinct of Old Albemarle Co NC on Cashy Swamp and River (later in Bertie Co). His will, proved Jan 1760 names sons William, Martin, James, John, and five daughters. Of his grandsons of the GARDNER name, at least two (cousins Lewis and Alexander) were in Georgia before 1800, and three (brothers Bryan and John and their cousin Bartholomew) went to Middle Tennessee about 1795-1799. A published genealogy lists (with no proof at all) Martin's father as a Martin GARDNER (d 1693, intestate), a justice, sheriff, and vestryman in York Co VA. A step-son administered the latter's estate, and I've seen no data indicating children or a wife other than the widow of Henry TYLER, Sr.

Quite a few GAR(D)NERS are in colonial records in the 1600's and 1700's relating to Tidewater Virginia, particularly numerous in Southampton (created 1749) and its predecessor counties of Nansemond and Isle of Wight (all near the NC border). Of the Southampton family four brothers (Henry, James, Jesse, and John), sons of Joshua GARDNER (d testate 1793 in VA) moved to Middle Tennessee around 1800, and an Etheldred GARDNER to Georgia c1817.

In Tyrrell Co., NC (later Martin and Washington), southerly and across the Roanoke River from Bertie and Chowan, a John GARDNER d 1749, naming in his will son John Smithwick GARDNER and six daughters. John's presumed brother William of Tyrrell d 1754, his will naming sons William, Thomas, Isaac, Samuel, grandson Samuel (son of Thomas), and "y^e Rest of my Children."

In Edgecombe Co NC (just northwest of Bertie in colonial times) a George GARDNER received patents of 390 acres in 1753 and 43 acres in 1778 - 300 acres in 1782 to a George GARNER. A George GARDNER's will in Edgecombe (1786/1789) names sons Martin, William, George, Julian, Lawrence, and five daughters. A Thomas GARDNER (1721-1773) is identified as of Edgecombe in 1758 when he bought 282 acres in Halifax, but of the latter county in 1760 and 1761 when he bought two more tracts there. His will and a Bible record (in NC Archiver, Raleigh) give his sons as William, Thomas (d young), John, George, Christopher (d young), Kemp (and Camp), Thomas, Pryor, Sterling (all b between 1744 and 1762). Of these, Prior (1758-c1830) and Starling (1762-c1847) went to Georgia around 1800;

Thomas, Jr. (1756-1827) stayed in NC. We have no record of the other four sons after they were named in the will.

A John GARD(I)NER (thought by a descendant to have come from Maryland) was on the NC frontier between the Yadkin and Catawba Rivers in Rowan Co by 1760 and acquired land there.

About 1774 Barzilla GARDNER, a Quaker from Nantuckett in New England, settled in Guilford Co NC.

In South Carolina four Williams and a Lewis Gardner were in the PeeDee country of old Craven Co between 1737 and 1770. Lewis and a William served in Powell's Regiment of S. C. Militia in the "Cherokee War," 1760-61 (part of the French and Indian War). Another published family history identifies these latter two as part of the Bertie Co NC connection and also as the Lewis and William GARDNER who received adjoining bounty land grants in Georgia right after the Revolution. Just similarity of names is rather weak evidence. The given names Lewis and William are found among early GARDNERS in Virginia, the Carolinas, and Georgia; much caution is needed to avoid confusing persons of the same names.

A Thomas GARDNER (1760-1815, b and d SC) of Kershaw and Fairfield Cos (or Districts) SC, served in the Revolution, according to DAR membership papers, not always accurate. His sons' names are given as James, George, Thomas, Jr., Daniel (1785-1872), William, and Reuben B. (1790-1843). Of these, Daniel and Reuben in the early 1800's settled in Pickens Co AL, near northeast MS.

In Union Co SC, a Lewis GARNER, signing by mark, made his will in 1810. On wife Sally's death, his land to "my youngest sons Lewis GARNER and Jarias GARNER." Some subsequent records on these two sons give their surname as GARDNER. (Take your choice, but land records might resolve this discrepancy.) I do not know names of any older sons.

Although not all-inclusive, the above references provide some choices. Multiply the above confusion by ten to get an idea of the difficulties in trying to bring these lines forward to about 1850 or 1860.

PLEASE NOTE

Due to some technical difficulties, publication of updated cemetery tombstone inscriptions in Ashley County has been postponed. Instead, from time to time, we will publish in the quarterly those tombstone inscriptions read several years ago. These were originally compiled by the late Ann ETHERIDGE VEAZY, who gave permission for publication before her death.

Remote Cemeteries

Tombstone inscriptions from some of the more remote Ashley County cemeteries were read in the 1960's by a number of persons for a compilation by NSDAR. No attempt has been made to update these readings because no recent burials are likely because of the remoteness of the sites.

GRISWOULD CEMETERY

Traveling west from Snyder on Hy 82, take first gravel road to the right past Snyder Cemetery, known as the Berea Road, and travel the straightest route for 4.3 miles (passing the Powell Cemetery arrow); turn left on another gravel road and go 0.1 mile to Old Central Cemetery on the right; continue for another 0.2 mile. Griswold Cemetery is to the right of the road in the midst of deep woods just off a very narrow pathway and would be extremely difficult to locate without a guide. Due to the overgrowth, it is quite possible that tombstones in it were not located. Copied by Lona Jackson Gardner, who grew up in Snyder but is now a resident of Little Rock, and by Margery Gregory Miller on 24 Jul 1966. Appreciation is expressed to Mrs. Gardner, who acted as guide to this very remote cemetery.

WARNING - This book NOT recommended!

October 15, 1900

Dear Mr. Hudgens,

Our book "HUDGENSES ACROSS AMERICA" represents our informative edition of knowledge about the location of Hudgens Families in America.

If individually researched, it would require you to spend thousands of dollars or months of work to search through National and State, government and utility records. These records represent the households of over 200 million people.

We have found the Hudgens name to be rare and thus "HUDGENSES ACROSS AMERICA" is a very special limited edition. There will be less than 60 books printed and they will only be printed upon your specific request. All orders must be received prior to November 19. Orders placed after this date must regretfully be declined.

HUDGENSES ACROSS AMERICA is a hard bound library edition and is gold stamped on a leather textured cover. Each book is serially numbered and accompanied by a letter authenticating the collection of data

HUDGENSES ACROSS AMERICA lists almost every Hudgens home in the U.S. It will:

- * Facilitate the location of relatives and namesakes
- * Help to initiate relationships with other Hudgens families
- * Aid in the study of the Hudgens migrations and settlements in America with the geographic counts
- * Educate you in the fundamentals of genealogical research by describing:
 1. The history of America origins
 2. The development of family crests
 3. The origin of family names
 4. The recording and documenting of family heritage

This nationwide household and family names has been expensive and time consuming. We're sure that you will be pleased with the work. If you are not, simply return the book for a full refund of $29.85.

Sincerely

Mary Whitney

P.S. You are already in this book.
